Highlights of the Gold Bar Police Department from this Month:

In the month of June, the department continued to focus on traffic safety and addressing unauthorized ORV's on city streets. This can be observed by the 32 traffic stops within the city limits and 51 traffic stops in the Gold Bar Region.

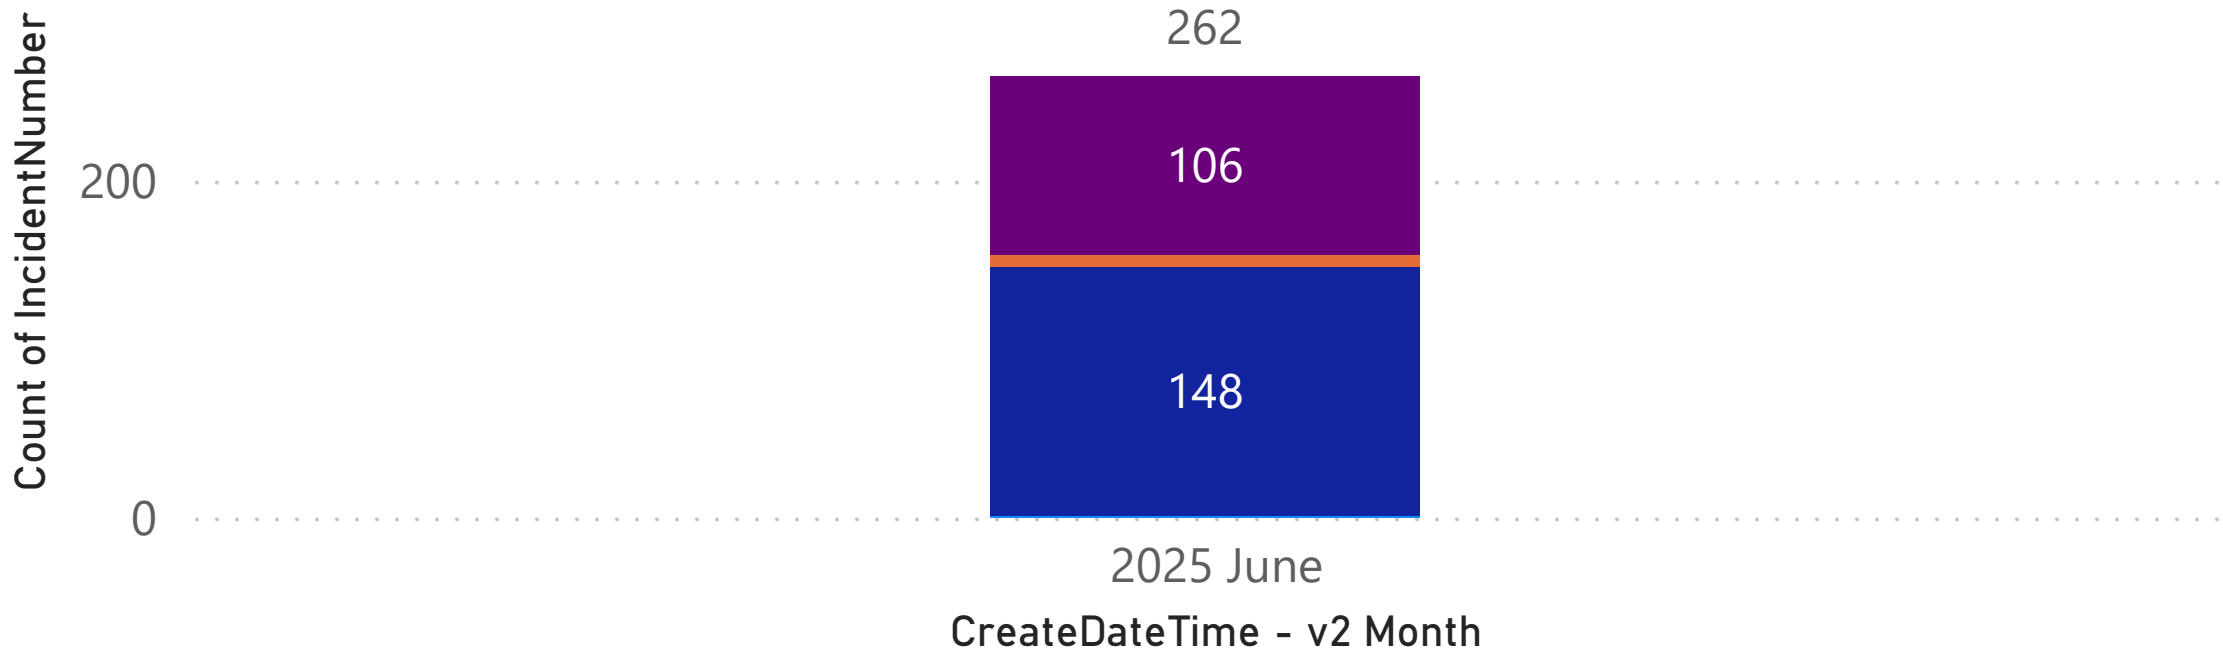

The department also continues to work with city and county code enforcement to address quality of life issues in or around the city of Gold Bar. For example, the department and county code enforcement assisted a Mann Road resident with removal of multiple junk vehicles from their property. We also had an abandoned RV removed from Index Galena Road.

Finally, after a recent critical incident outside the city limits the department would like to share information about receiving Snohomish County Alerts. One can sign up to receive alerts sent out by Snohomish County Department of Emergency Management at snocoalerts.snoco.org.
