Highlights of the Gold Bar Police Department from this Month:

During the month of August, the department remained busy averaging 33 calls for service a day. However, Gold Bar deputies continued to prioritize traffic safety and quality of life issues. An abandoned fifth wheel was removed from the city's right of way, an illegal camp removed, and 76 traffic stops were made within city limits.

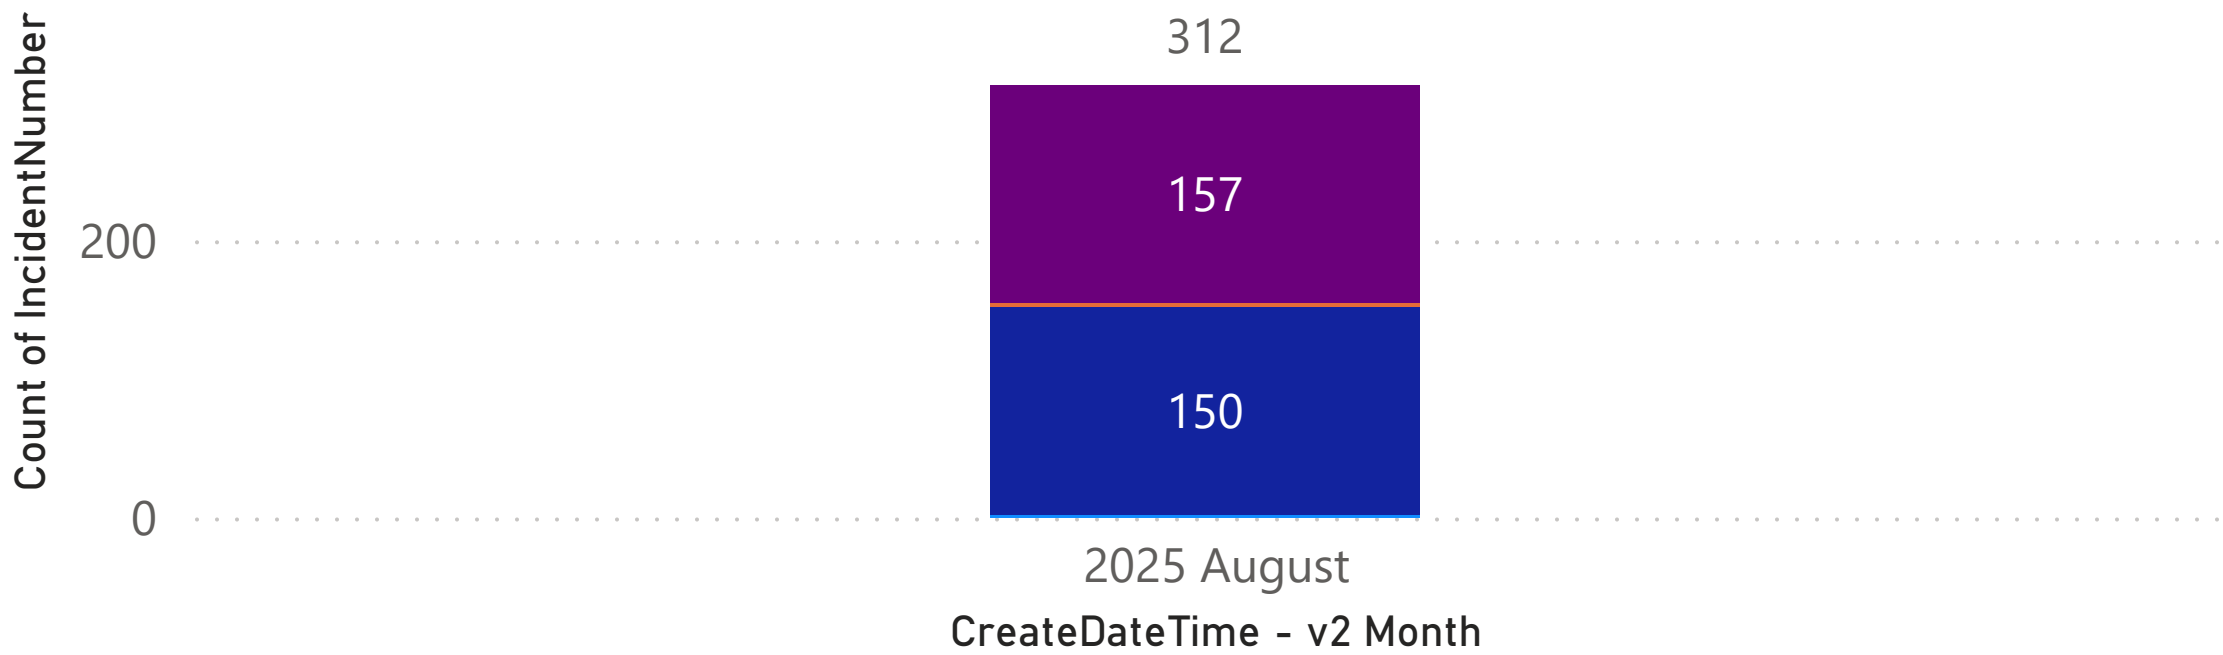

Gold Bar deputies Winningham and Gallina with the help of the community identified a mail theft suspect. The suspect, who is not from the area stole multiple packages and articles of mail from the Creekside neighborhood. The case has been forwarded the Prosecutor's Office.

Finally, it was National Night Out in August. It was a great turnout, and we'd like to thank all the community members that attended.
