He said Deputy Gallina will be relocating out of state and will be missed. There was discussion around equipment used for pursuits.

Director Norris said the city was able to donate woodchips to the Startup Event Center. He attended a kick-off meeting with the Department of Commerce regarding upcoming work on affordable housing. Office Manager Beaston said there have been issues with dogs at large on Reiner Road and 19th. Utility bills will go out in the mail on the 4th.

Mayor Yarbrough reminded people how to sign in if they wished to comment during the citizen comment portion of the meeting.

COUNCIL COMMENTS

Councilmember Sears reminded people to vote for the upcoming school elections.

Councilmember Lie talked about using ballot boxes instead of the post office, the State Patrol presence, the need to follow legislation, and Snohomish County Tomorrow and housing bills. He also said he wanted to see short-term rentals on the next agenda because people are against them and feel they destroy communities. Councilmember Sears reminded everyone that the current ordinance was created because short-term rentals had no regulations and would have been allowed anywhere in the city. Because of that, the current ordinance was created to restrict those rentals.

Councilmember Martin thanked Councilmember Sears for excusing her absence from the last meeting.

Councilmember Craig is watching legislation coming out and also looking at short-term rentals. She was glad to see the installation of little book libraries and would like to see a food pantry at one of the parks.

CITIZEN COMMENTS

Joe Beavers talked about a crosswalk on SR2, giving its background, his safety concerns, and that he had contacted representatives and elected officials but received no replies. He feels the council should have some say in safety concerns.
